COUNTY MAN IS SUICIDE

Body Found In Car, 200 Yards Off Morgan Grade; Top Of Head Blown Off

Coroner A. J. Orelli returned shortly before three o'clock with the body of the suicide, and positively identified the man as Wesley Kessler. The man left several notes, evidently addressed to his estranged wife, which were not entirely coherent. The body was given to the care of the Dillingham mortuary and the coroner said no date for the inquest would be set until later in the day.

The official reported Kessler had evidently parked the car on the shoulder of the highway and shot himself, his foot releasing the brake on the car as the shot took effect.

The gun he used, it was disclosed, was one used by a suicide earlier in the year and subsequently acquired by John A. Winkelman, by whom Kessler had been employed. Whether Kessler had borrowed the gun or had taken it without Winkelman's permission was not immediately established.

The whereabouts of Wesley Kessler, 33, who had been missing since Sunday evening, are believed to have been explained by the discovery Tuesday morning of the body of a man in a car, 200 yards off the state highway on the Morgan grade about a mile this side of Kelsey.

The top of his head had been blown off, presumably by a sawed off 12 gauge shotgun which was found in the car by the body.

The body was discovered by Glenn Farmer and Harry Pomeroy, of Kelsey, who had been deer hunting in the vicinity and who noticed what

New Road Signs For County

Complete Re-Signing, First Time In 15 Years Is Current Project

Approximately four hundred road signs were received in Placerville over the weekend at the office of the California State Automobile Association, to be set up throughout the county in a complete re-signing of the entire county.

This is according to County Engineer Don M. Hoffman, who completed the surveys for the erection of the signs in a series of surveys in cooperation with the auto association staff.

The project is a co-operative undertaking between the auto association and the county Board of Supervisors and it is reported that this is the first time in fifteen years that a project of this nature has been carried out on such sweeping lines.

The new signs include directional markers giving the distances from certain points to various communities as well as roadside markers designating school zones and all other types of signs commonly noted along the highways.

The signs are to be set up by the auto association road-sign crew and now await the crew's arrival.

Grandmother Of Local Resident Passes

Mrs. Cleo Clifton received word Tuesday morning of the death at Berkeley on Monday of her grandmother, Mrs. Lucyna Zaremba, at the age of 78 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton made plans to leave Tuesday evening or early Wednesday to attend funeral services, to be held at Berkeley on Wednesday.

Mrs. Zaremba is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Con Kibblish, and her granddaughter, Mrs. Lucille Clifton.

Philadelphia Bids For Pan-American Games

PHILADELPHIA, (AP) — The proposal to hold Pan-American athletic games here next year to replace the Olympic games in Finland, which are virtually certain to be cancelled if the European conflict continues, gained strong support today.

C. G. Celio and Sons are the plaintiffs in a suit filed in Superior Court Tuesday against W. E. Lampson, asking judgment for $328.49 alleged owing for goods supplied within four years past.

STATE TEACHING STANDARDS TO BE ON HIGHER PLANE

County Superintendent, Home From Convention Announces Plans For Trustees' Institute, Tentatively Scheduled For October 25th

Evidencing a determination to adhere closely to the "three R's" in education, school superintendents of the state held an interesting and profitable four-day meeting at Del Monte last week with sessions closing on Saturday.

Kenneth W. McCoy, county superintendent of schools, and John H. Palmer, district superintendent of Placerville Grammar School, were El Dorado County's representatives at the meeting.

Summarizing the convention, Mr. McCoy said on Tuesday that one of the highlights of the meeting was the announcement by spokesmen for the state Department of Education of a determination to raise the standards of teaching as a profession in the state to be the equal of the legal or the medical profession.

This announcement came as a statement of policy of the state department and won the general endorsement of the convention, Mr. McCoy said.

In connection with the new law governing the handling of school warrants, Mr. McCoy said the law was thoroughly reviewed and explained by state department heads before the convention and pointed out that under the law, school warrants can not be honored unless they have been approved by the school superintendent's office.

He said he will call a school Trustees' Institute to be held at Placerville Grammar School during the week of October 20th, and probably on October 25th, at which it is hoped heads of the state department will be present to explain in detail the new law.

Under school laws, at least one member of each district board of trustees must attend these institutes and it is hoped that as many as possible will be able to arrange to be present, the superintendent said. The attendance of all public officials and taxpayers will also be welcomed, Mr. McCoy said.

The school superintendents voted "thumbs down" on the "ham and eggs plan" as a dangerous threat to the school system and, during the four-day meeting, discussed a wide variety of school problems.

LECTURE FORUM SERIES OPENS TONIGHT AT CLUBHOUSE

Dr. Baldwin M. Wood, professor of engineering at the University of California, will be the first speaker on the Placerville lecture-forum series, which opens tonight at the Shakespeare clubhouse.

Dr. Wood will speak on "Where We Stand in Aviation."

Thomas Flynn, of the high school faculty, will preside as chairman and Melvyn Lawson, of Sacramento, will serve as moderator.

This is the first of four events in the lecture-forum series. Other dates scheduled are: October 17th, for which no speaker has been named; October 24th, when Prof. Landauer will be the speaker; and November 14th, when Dr. Tully Knoles will speak.

The lecture series, like the music series, is under the management of Evalon Peters. The music series opened Tuesday evening of last week with the appearance of Catherine Rue, contralto.

Coming dates in the music series are: November 7th, presenting the California Nightingales; and December 5th, the Pro Musica string quartet, with Emerie Rudland, accompanist.

Brother Of Placerville Woman Is Summoned

David Ward Burnett, 59, brother of Mrs. Addie Hubbard, of Placerville, died Monday at Folsom where he had made his home for many years.

The funeral services will be held Wednesday at ten o'clock from the Miller chapel at Folsom and interment will be at the Spanish American War Veterans Plot at Sylvan Cemetery.

Mr. Burnett is survived by his wife, four sons and two daughters; three brothers and two sisters in addition to the one named above.

COLOMA NATIVE DIED AT SACRAMENTO MONDAY; RITES WEDNESDAY

Mrs. Emma De Lory Mahler, a native of Coloma and an aunt of Mrs. Esther Mahler Petach, of Placerville, passed away on Monday at a hospital at Sacramento where she had been a patient for about ten days.

Mrs. Mahler was the widow of the late William Mahler, and had made her home at Sacramento for many years. Mr. Mahler passed on several years ago.

The funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from East Lawn chapel, Sacramento, under the auspices of Mezaleh temple No. 16, Daughters of the Nile. Entombment will follow at East Lawn Mausoleum.

Mrs. Mahler is survived by a sister, Mrs. A. M. Davidson, and by two nieces in addition to the one named above, and one nephew. The nieces are Mrs. Petach, Mrs. Metta M. Kite and Mrs. Elma Casselman; and the nephew is Everett DeLory, of Coloma.

BURTON WILEY NAMED TO PLUMAS COUNTY SCHOOL BOARD

Burton Wiley, son of Mrs. Margaret Burrus, formerly of Placerville, and a graduate of the county high school, has been appointed to be a member of the Plumas County Board of Education, according to a recent issue of the Indian Valley Record, published in that county.

Mr. Wiley has been science teacher in the Greenville high school for several years and was appointed a member of the county board following the resignation of the high school principal from board membership.

The many friends of Burton and of his mother will be happy to hear of the recognition being accorded his work in the field of teaching.

ARMISTICE DAY CLOSING URGED

Legion Post Calls On Sacramento Stores To Observe November 11th

El Dorado Post No. 119, American Legion, at its meeting October 4th, went on record by resolution calling on the merchants of Sacramento to join with the merchants of Placerville in closing their stores in observance of Armistice Day.

The resolution, which is to be considered by the Sixth District organization of the Legion at a meeting later this month in Grass Valley, declares that it is only fair to the merchants of Placerville that the Sacramento business houses join in observing the day as the Placerville stores do.

The resolution follows: THAT WHEREAS, Armistice Day, November 11th, is a National Legal Holiday, and is observed by all City, State, Federal Offices, Banks and Public Utilities, by closing their doors to business, and

WHEREAS, for the past 10 years, in addition to the aforesaid action of observance by these businesses, the stores of all merchants in Placerville (except those normally open on Sundays and holidays) have closed their doors to business for the entire day, and

WHEREAS, the City of Placerville has an ordinance in force requiring all stores, selling foods, clothing, household fixtures and furnishings, to close their doors to business on Armistice Day, November 11th;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that in all fairness to the Merchants of Placerville, California, who co-operate and demonstrate their patriotism to the com-

Hitler Renews Peace Plea

Nazis Credit Britain With Attempt To Break German War Morale

By UNITED PRESS
Adolf Hitler today repeated "our desire for peace" with the allied powers.

"I repeat our desire for peace," the fuhrer said in a speech opening the winter relief campaign in a Germany that is fighting—successfully, Nazis say—against a British and French blockade.

"We have no war claims or claims against the western powers," the German government charged British secret agents with responsibility for a sudden wave of rumors of an armistice that stirred the German capital to great excitement and then dropped the public to deep gloom when the official radio described the reports as false.

The false stories of peace and of resignation of the British government, coming shortly after the Reich had called up still more reservists, appeared to have been part of an allied move to damage German morale but in London the foreign office said that it was "fantastic" to blame the British agents for the incident.

The unofficial armistice which had existed to a large extent on the fighting fronts for the last few days was broken, the French reported, by repeated vain attacks by German patrols in the Saar and Moselle sectors of the Rhineland front.

FARM CENTER DANCE DATE IS SHIFTED IN FAVOR OF CHRISTMAS FUND

The Missouri Flat Farm Center, which had made plans for a dance on the evening of October 28th for the benefit of the Missouri Flat Community Hall fund, has advanced the date of the dance one week, to October 21.

Mrs. Florence Sweeney, chairman of the committee in charge, announced that the new date has been selected to avoid a conflict with the annual dance of Placerville Aerie No. 889, F. O. E., on October 28, which will raise funds for the aerie's annual Christmas party for the little children of the county.

Upon learning of the farm center's change in plans, D. W. LeBourveau, chairman for the Eagles dance, expressed the thanks and appreciation of the aerie for the special act of co-operation.

LeBourveau also revealed that Merryman's Merry-makers have been engaged for the October 28th dance, which will have numerous special features including a balloon dance.

The Eagles dance will be held October 28th, at the I. O. O. F. hall in Placerville.

REPEAL HELD DEFENSE AID

Vermont Senator Says He Supports Embargo Repeal As Help To Allied Cause

By ALLEN C. DIBBLE
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, (AP) — Assistant senate minority leader Warren E. Austin, R., Vt., said today that he was supporting President Roosevelt's neutrality program because he believes removal of the arms embargo will help Great Britain and France win the war.

"We must do all things possible," he said, "to hasten the victory of the allies."

He admitted that his attitude was "a selfish one," but said he felt that the pending bill should be described as a national defense act rather than neutrality legislation.

Referring to the proposed repeal of the embargo, allowing any nation to purchase arms and munitions here on a "take-title-and-carry" basis, he said:

"In order to protect the interest of the United States, we are making it possible for Britain and France to obtain resources to speed up their triumph in the war."

The move to allow this country to sell instruments of war, he said, is an act of self defense but implies no promises of future aid to the allies.

"Our people know that the very last resort of our national defense is to send our boys to battle anywhere," Austin said. "We absolutely will not send them to a foreign battle."

"What better defense is there for

Army Training Intensified

Guardsmen And Reserve May Be Set Up As "Minute Man" Force

WASHINGTON, (AP) — The war department rushed plans today for intensive training of more than 250,000 national guardsmen and reserve officers. They would be a "minute man" army in event of an emergency.

The plan is being prepared under personal supervision of Secretary of War Harry H. Woodring. It would complement the recently announced "year-around" training program involving 67,500 regular infantrymen and cavalrymen, comprising seven divisions. They are being concentrated in southern and western states where mild climatic conditions make possible intensive training year-round.

The tentative plans would:

1. Provide drills on two nights weekly, instead of the present one, for the 235,000 national guardsmen and their 15,000 officers, and a week end of training once a month in addition to the regular annual two weeks of summer maneuvers.

2. Permit guard and reserve officers starting at the rank of captain to observe and participate in exercises of the regular army. About 23,000 would be involved.

The law restricts national guard drills to not more than 80 annually. Some experts believed that the tentative program may presage an effort by the administration to have congress change it.

L. D. S. MISSION HEAD TO ADDRESS MEETING TUESDAY NIGHT

W. Aird Macdonald, president of the California mission of the L. D. S. Church will visit Placerville tonight to speak at a meeting at the I. O. O. F. hall at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. Macdonald, whose headquarters are at Los Angeles, comes to Placerville as a part of a tour of California, Arizona and Nevada, which comprise his jurisdiction, and will leave following tonight's meeting for Reno, continuing his tour.

Formerly a member of the state Board of Equalization, he had served the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints in various capacities prior to his appointment as the California mission president.

The meeting tonight will be open to the public and all who are interested are welcome to attend.

Mrs. Gertrude Cornelson arrived Tuesday from Clear Lake Highlands for a short visit with her mother, Mrs. W. S. Kirk. Dick was here for a short stay during the day.

Annual Newspaper Week Recalls Founding Of Paper At Monterey.

By WM. S. KELLOGG
President

California Newspaper Pub. Ass'n.
Governor Olson has set aside the period of October 8 to 14 as Newspaper week in California and in his proclamation has stated in part that "it is fitting that a period to be set aside for the people to take stock of the manner in which the newspapers of California are performing their duties with respect to fair and unbiased treatment of the news."

And that is as it should be, for the Fourth Estate in California has for the most part set an enviable record in the annals of American journalism. In surveying the fairness, the vigor, the effectiveness of present day journalism in California, it is well for a moment to look back to its beginning in this state.

It was just ninety-three years ago that California's first newspaper made its appearance. When the Rev. Walter Colton, newly-appointed alcalde of Monterey, and Robert Semple resolved to print a paper back in 1846, their equipment consisted of a dust-covered press that had been brought from Spain.

It was a small, four-page affair, printed half in English, half in Spanish, but it was California's first newspaper. No other kind of newsprint being available, they used sheets of the paper from which the Spaniards rolled their cigars.

In that first issue, dated Aug. 15, 1846, a copy of which can be seen in the Huntington library at Pasadena, is an editorial—a tribute to the progressive spirit and fair mindedness of its publishers — which reads in part as follows:

"This is the first paper ever published in California, and though issued upon a small sheet, it is in-

SOIL SERVICE SEEKING NEW AND LARGER QUARTERS

The Placerville Project offices of the Soil Conservation Service is seeking larger quarters and bids will be opened Saturday, according to a notice posted at the postoffice, on offers to provide a total of 7,000 square feet of floor space.

This is divided between office space and garage space.

The bid indicates that it is not necessarily required that the garage space be immediately adjacent to the office space, but it should be in the same vicinity.

KYLE THOMPSON ADVANCED IN SOIL CONSERVATION SERVICE RANKS

Kyle Thompson, for the past eighteen months project conservationist for the Soil Conservation Service on the Placerville Project, has been transferred to the regional headquarters of the Soil Conservation Service at Berkeley, in charge of water facilities administration for the district embracing California and Nevada.

Announcement of Mr. Thompson's advancement was made this week by Glenn Paxton, manager of the Placerville Project. Mr. Thompson and his family have moved to Berkeley and he has taken up his new duties.

Officer Charles Flick, of the highway patrol, is on his annual vacation.

LIONS ENDORSE LEGION STAND

Chamber Of Commerce Aide Stresses Necessity Of Adequate Parking Area

Placerville Lions gave their support to a resolution endorsing the attitude of El Dorado Post No. 119, American Legion, urging Sacramento business houses to make a proper observance of Armistice Day. The American Legion recently passed a resolution pointing out that Placerville business houses close on Armistice Day and that, in fairness to the business men of Placerville if not for patriotic reasons, the Sacramento business houses should close in observance of the holiday.

Copies of the American Legion resolution are to be sent to various organizations at Sacramento, and a copy of the Lions resolution will be sent to the Sacramento Retail Merchants Association.

The motion to approve the resolution was put by Lion L. J. Anderson and seconded by Lion George Faugstad.

Lions also were addressed informally by Wallace M. Ripley, chamber of commerce secretary, who advised the business men of the club that despite the advance of the season, tourist travel continues through Placerville.

This gives rise, he said, for continuing to pay attention to the need to leave adequate parking space in the business district for the cars of tourist visitors.

He urged that the business men speak to their employees about this

Grid Turfing Work Asked

Formal Application For Bennett Park Project Is Filed With WPA

Formal application for a WPA project to turf the playing field at Marcus P. Bennett, Jr., Memorial Park, has been filed with the Works Progress Administration, it was announced Tuesday by County Engineer Don M. Hoffman.

The application is based on the guarantee of approximately $1,300 in cash which has been pledged to the project by the county high school board, the student body, the softball league, the Lions Club and the Board of Supervisors in a recent campaign in community service led by the Lions Club.

Those in charge are hopeful that approval for the project may be received within a few weeks so that preparations may be made to start work on the field immediately following the close of the high school football season on Armistice Day.

COUGARS DROP PRACTICE TILT TO PLACER RESERVES

The Cougars tasted defeat Monday in their second football game of the year, a practice game against the Placer Junior College reserves, played at Marcus P. Bennett, Jr. Memorial Park. The score was 18 to 0. The game had been scheduled to be played Saturday of last week and was postponed until Monday at the request of the Auburn coach since the Jay-Sees had a regularly scheduled junior college game on that date.

On Saturday afternoon of this week, the Cougars sailed into the Nevada City high school eleven for their second game of the year in the high school class. The game is called for 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon at Bennett Memorial Park. In the game against the Junior College reserves, the Cougars were pitted against a larger, more experienced and heavier eleven and did well, some of their rosters declared, to prevent the reserves from running up a larger score.

This Is Newspaper Week —

This week is Newspaper Week, a brief period designated by Governor Olson as a tribute to the efficient work of the press as it constantly brings to a myriad of homes an accurate picture of local, national and world events.

Newspapers are proud of the fact that the public has found them to be dependable and reliable as they present all of the news of the day in detail—news that has been verified and confirmed by every possible means at hand.

Newspapers are proud of the fact that the scope of their service is unlimited—that it is varied, multiple, diverse, constant, factual.

Newspapers are proud of the fact that the vast majority of the reading public has faith and confidence in them—a faith and a confidence that seldom has been misplaced.

That is why the newspaper of today enjoys the distinction of having—and holding—the respect and loyalty of men and women everywhere.

This year the California Newspaper Publishers Association has selected Truth as the theme for Newspaper Week. On that occasion newspapers throughout the state will reaffirm to the public their pledge to eliminate propaganda in every possible way and to provide a medium to which all may turn to find the most reliable and accurate information.

All this may sound just a bit egotistical, but it's true, every word of it. Newspapers are proud—and jealous—of their reputation.

us, therefore, than that which will keep the battle front just as far as possible from us?"

Austin said he feared that a victory for Germany would threaten American institutions and, for that reason, contended that his was "a patriotic attitude from the citizens' viewpoint."

Austin's frank statement was the first admission by a senator supporting the administration that the pending bill would aid the allies. Isolationists charge that repeal of the embargo would give Britain and France the advantage by virtue of their superior navies. Proponents of repeal, however, charge that the present embargo gives the advantage to Germany because, they declare, Germany doesn't need to buy arms here.

Meanwhile, the debate in the senate was threatened with another day of parliamentary moves. Two side issues faced the senators as they began the seventh day of debate:

1. A motion by Sen. Charles W. Tobey, R., N. H., to recommit the neutrality bill to the foreign relations committee for splitting it to permit consideration of the title and carry provisions, leaving the arms embargo repeal for later discussion, comes up for a vote at 2 p. m. EST.
2. A proposal by Sen. Edwin C. Johnson, D., Colo., to take three-day recesses—the maximum allowed—until European nations can act on peace overtures may be made today or tomorrow.

Administration leaders predicted defeat of both.

tended it shall contain matter that will be read with interest. The principles which will govern us in conducting it can be set forth in a few words.

"We shall maintain an entire and utter severance of all political connection with Mexico. We renounce at once and forever all fealty to her laws, all obedience to her mandates.

"We shall advocate an oblivion of all past political offenses, and allow every man the privilege of entering this new era of events unembarrassed by any part he may have taken in previous revolutions.

"We shall maintain freedom of speech and the press, and those great principles of religious toleration, which allow every man to worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience.

"We shall advocate such a system of public instruction as will bring the means of a good practical education to every child in California.

"We shall urge the immediate establishment of a well-organized government, and a universal obedience to its laws.

"We shall encourage immigration, and take especial pains to point out to agricultural immigrants those sections of unoccupied lands, where the fertility of the soil will most amply repay the labors of the husbandman.

"We shall encourage domestic manufactures and the mechanic arts as sources of private wealth, individual comfort, and indispensable to the public prosperity.

"We shall go for California—for all her interests, social, civil, and religious — encouraging everything that promotes these, resisting everything that can do them harm.

"This press shall be free and independent, unawed by power and untrammelled by party. The use of its columns shall be denied to none who have suggestions to make promotive of the public weal.

"We shall lay before our readers the freshest domestic intelligence and the earliest foreign news.

"We commence our publication upon a very small sheet, but its dimensions shall be enlarged as soon as the requisite materials can be obtained."

This editorial cannot help but impress those who read it. It sets forth in no uncertain terms the sound and effective policy upon which the press of California was founded. From that day to the present time the Fourth Estate has played an important part in the development of the great state of California.

It is a matter of real satisfaction to those engaged in the profession of journalism that the vast majority of the more than 500 newspapers which are published in California today are living up to and following the high principles and ideals so ably expounded by the state's first newspaper.

Once again, as the nation debates foreign policy, the name of Robert M. La Follette, of Wisconsin, is found among the leaders of the bloc seeking to avoid any move toward internationalism.

This time it is the son of the Wisconsin progressive who fought United States involvement in the world war and sought to isolate this country from "power politics."

Robert M. La Follette, Jr., who has supported New Deal moves toward a liberal economy, has aligned himself with a bloc fighting President Roosevelt on his proposal to end the arms embargo.

La Follette not only supports the arms embargo, but he also desires that the question of United States entrance into any war be submitted to the electorate through a national referendum. He has offered a constitutional amendment to that effect.

The small, dark haired La Follette is recognized as one of the most vigorous and able speakers of the senate. Being an independent, La Follette never pulls a punch in his speeches in which he rushes direct to the issue and hammers at the opposition with a verbal barrage that never fails to arouse interest.

Young La Follette was elected in 1925 to fill the unexpired term of his deceased father, and the objectives of his father became the keystone of his pledges.

The senator contended during a foreign policy debate last session that attention should not be distracted from the economic and social problems in the United States by concern over developments abroad.

He felt that the United States could best serve its people by curbing the causes of unemployment and meeting other serious problems, rather than becoming involved in the foreign situation.

Although his experience does not match that of Sens. William E. Borah, Idaho Republican, and Hiram W. Johnson, California Republican, La Follette's aggressiveness makes him one of the leaders in the foreign policy debate.

HE FLIES BLIND

DARWIN, Australia (UP) — St. Elmo's fire—a flame-like glow that occurs in tropical storms—encircled the propeller of the plane which "Flying Doctor" Fenton was navigating to attend a patient suffering from appendicitis, forcing him to make the entire trip by flying blind, guided only by rivers.

AUTO TAXES "SINK" U.S. FLEET

NEWS ITEM—Every battleship in the U.S. war fleet (or the British war fleet) could be sunk by the weight of the annual tax bill of U.S. motorists, collected chiefly in pennies for gasoline taxes. The average motorist pays $53 annually in taxes on his car. That amount in pennies would weigh 36 pounds, or a total of 540,000 tons for the 30,000,000 motorists in the nation. Total displacement of all American battleships is only 438,000 tons, or considerably less than the 540,000 tons of tax pennies.
Tonnage of all British battleships, as of Jan. 1, 1939, was 474,700, which is also less than the weight in pennies of the annual tax burden of American motorists.

NEW YORK YANKEES, FOUR TIMES WORLD CHAMPS, THAT CAN'T BE BEATEN HAVE A WAY WITH A BALL AND BAT

By HARRY FERGUSON

United Press Staff Correspondent

CINCINNATI (U)—The New York Yankees, world champions of baseball for the fourth consecutive year
and victors in four straight games for the last two seasons, will let you name your own game and then beat you out at it.

There can't be much doubt any more, as Cincinnati went into mourning for the Reds, that the Yankees of 1938-39 are one of the greatest ball teams ever put together. No one doubts that they are the most versatile.

If you want to play close, heads-
up baseball behind a classy pitcher, they will beat you at that. If you want to risk everything on defense, they will surpass you afield. And if you want to slug with them—well, that is like drawing a sharp, new razor across your throat.

The remarkable thing in the series just ended is the way the Yankees can adapt themselves to any situation. In the first game in New York, the Reds came up with Paul Derringer, who did a courageous job of pitching. He pitched well enough to win five of any seven ball games whether they were played in the world series or not.

But Manager Joe McCarthy of the Yankees called on Rufus the Red Ruffing with the result that the Reds looked at high class pitching
such as they seldom see in the National League.

It was the same story in the second game, Bucky Walters, with a baffling sinker ball, figured to be a tough man for the Yanks to beat.
McCarthy knew he was going to have to get good pitching so he trotted out Monte Pearson, a frail sort of fellow who has a great knack of coming through when the chips are down. Pearson subdued the Reds with a two-hitter — the best pitched game of the series.

Then the series shifted to the west and the Reds were on home grounds where they figured to hit better. And they did, but the Yankees rose up and matched and out-matched their slugging.

The pay-off on Yankee power really came Sunday. They were faced by the two best pitchers of the Cincinnati club — Paul Derringer

New Legion Commander Has Typical American History

The life story of Raymond J. Kelly of Detroit, Michigan, outstanding attorney and a member of the National Legislative Committee of The American Legion, from 1933 to 1936 is a typical American story of a boy who rose from humble surroundings to positions of responsibility through sheer personal pluck, determination and ability.

In his ambition to acquire an education, Mr. Kelly walked six miles each day at the age of 12 years, to attend high school. When he had won his high school diploma he went after a college education with the same singleness of purpose. He worked his way through both the University of Notre Dame and the University of Detroit, graduating from law school in 1915 at the age of 20, the youngest man in his law class.

The same will power that got him his education over all obstacles also served to carry him ahead in his chosen profession after he started the practice of law in Detroit in 1915. Today he is serving his seventh year as corporation counsel of the City of Detroit, the fourth largest city in the United States; he is past president of the Michigan Association of City Attorneys, and a past president of the Institute of Municipal Law Officers, the national organization of city attorneys.
He has also had the distinction of serving as president of the Detroit Lawyers' Club, of being the secretary of the Detroit Bar Association for several terms, and is a member of the bar of the United States Supreme Court. In 1930 he was appointed general counsel of the Detroit Street Railways, a municipal owned utility, serving three years.

and Bucky Walters, perhaps the two best pitchers in the National League. But they whaled away at Walters and Derringer as though they were a pair of kids, fresh out of the bushes.

Each member of the Yankees entitled to a full share of the world series money received $5,614.26. Each member of the Cincinnati Reds entitled to a full share of the loser's money got $3,282.58.

World series four-game total statistics follow: attendance, 183,849;
receipts, $745,329.09; players' share,
$280,117.84; commissioner's share, $111,799.36; club's share, $126,705.95,
and leagues' share, $126,705.95.

STATEMENT OF THE OWNER-SHIP, MANAGEMENT, CIRCULA-TION, ETC., REQUIRED BY THE ACTS OF CONGRESS OF AUGUST
24, 1912, AND MARCH 3, 1933.

Form 3526
Of The Placerville Republican,
published daily at Placerville,
California for October 1st, 1939.
Before me, a Notary Public in and for the State and County aforesaid, personally appeared C. E.
Barker, who having been duly sworn according to law, deposes
and says that he is the lessee-publisher of the Placerville Republican;

And that the following is to the best of his knowledge and belief,
a true statement of the ownership,
management, etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the Act of August 24, 1912, as amended by the Act of March 3, 1933, embodied in Section 537, Postal Laws
and Regulations, to-wit:

1. That the names and addresses of the publisher, editor, managing editor, and business managers are:
Publisher, C. E. Barker, Placerville,
California.
Editor, V. E. Allen, Placerville,
California.

Managing Editor, None.
Business Manager, M. H. Vaught, Placerville, California.

2. Owned by the Mountain Publishing Company, a corporation but operating under lease-agreement by
C. E. Barker as nominal owner.

3. That the known bondholders, mortgages, and other security holders, and holding 1 per cent or more of total amount of bonds,
mortgages, or other securities are,
NONE.

4. That the two paragraphs next above, giving the names of owners,
stockholders, and security holders,
if any, contain not only the list of
stockholders and security holders
as they appear upon the books of the company, but also, in cases where the stockholder or security holder appears upon the books of the company as trustee or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing affiant's full knowledge and belief as to the circumstances and conditions under which stockholders and security holders who do not appear upon the books of the company as trustees, hold stock and securities in a capacity other than that of a bona fide owner; and this affiant has no reason to believe that any other person, association,
or corporation has any interest direct or indirect in the said stock, bonds, or other securities than as so stated by him.

5. That the average number of copies of each issue of this publication sold or distributed, through the mails or otherwise, to paid subscribers during the twelve months preceding the date shown above is 893.

(Signed) C. E. BARKER.
Sworn to and subscribed before me this 10th day of October, 1939.

Tommies Land in France in Face of Red Threat

Russia and Germany concluded their partition of Poland and threatened to throw the Soviet's 160,000,000 citizens into the war in alliance with the Reich's 80,000,000, should France and Britain refuse to recognize the conquest and make peace. This photo, flashed by radio from London to New York, shows British soldiers disembarking from an English troop-ship at an unnamed French port, symbolizing the Allies' determination to continue the war until Hitlerism is stamped out.

County Man Is Suicide

appeared to be the wreckage of an automobile about two hundred yards off the highway.

Being residents of the near vicinity and not having heard of any recent circumstance which might explain the car being there, they investigated and found the body.

In reporting their find to the sheriff's office, the two said the car was registered to Louise Kessler.

Sheriff Smith said that Kessler was last known to have been seen on Sunday evening. He and his wife had not been getting along and Mrs. Kessler had spoken to the sheriff about her husband's absence on Monday. Some inquiry as to his whereabouts had been made but without success.

When Farmer and Pomeroy made their report to the sheriff's office,
it was taken to indicate that Kes-
ler probably had taken his own life.
The Kelsey men said that from the tracks on the highway shoulder, they would judge that the car had run off the road about two days previous.

They said the front and top of the car were badly crushed and that from appearances the car had bounced end over end and then rolled some distance before landing upright on the canyon side.

The circumstance was reported to Coroner A. J. Orelli who left shortly before noon to recover the body.

CARD OF THANKS

On behalf of Placerville Aerie, No. 889, F. O. E., we wish by this means publicly to express appreciation and thanks to the Missouri Flat Farm Center for their courtesy in altering their dance plans to avoid a conflict with our Christmas Party benefit dance on October 28th.

The Farm Center had planned a dance for October 28 for the benefit of the community hall project, and has now advanced the date of that dance to October 21, purposely to avoid a conflict with our October 28th dance, and their courtesy is very much appreciated.
